

Miss Alice Wilson of Maywood is spending a week with Mrs. Richards of West Grand View.

The committee is busily at work planning the details for the celebration and an announcement will be made at the earliest possible date. The celebration will begin in the afternoon, with a series of special events for the children, young and old, followed by a community picnic dinner.

A program will begin at 7 or 7:30 and will feature the well-known local artists who have allowed their time for these efforts and talents. Special efforts will be made to make this one of the finest programs that have been presented on the park series.

Th Volunteer Firemen will be asked to again stage a demon-

A very small sum of money is needed to put the celebration "over," and committee members will try to distribute the cost as widely as possible. Persons residing out of the business district may leave donations at the News office. The "long-suffering" business men will receive personal visits. It is suggested that they in turn should not be asked to bear the entire burden.

The plan, in its embryo state, calls for about five acres of ground to be leveled for a ball diamond, with additional ground for grandstand and bleachers. The tract will be worked over by willing hands, recruited from the business personnel of the city and the young athletes who are anxious for a place in which to display their wares.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Anderson of West Montecito took a motor trip last week into El Centro, Redlands, Yuma, Rice, thru the Imperial Valley to San Diego. The weather was disappointing, a chill and blowing which, according to valley gardeners, will slow down garden crops for at least three weeks. The cantaloupes will be better because of the cool winds, unusual for this time of year.

Sierra Madre voted in one precinct, at the grammar school, and Mrs. Annie Brown, Mrs. R. W. Stewart, Mrs. U. M. Fox and Mrs. James N. Hawks acted as officials at the election.

Mrs. Mary E. Richards of West Grand View Avenue and Miss Annette Fawcett of Pasadena, attended a Salem, Ohio, picnic in Sycamore Grove last Saturday.

NEW SUPERVISOR TO VISIT HERE

Miss M. C. Brandt of 174 North Mountain Trail has received word that her sister, Miss Rose Brandt, has been appointed supervisor of elementary education in the Indian service at large over the United States, thru the Bureau of Indian Affairs at Washington, D. C. The plan as understood, when Miss Brandt was called to headquarters in Washington in March, was that she is to spend part of each year in the field and part at headquarters. The position is an entirely new one, and intended to aid in reorganizing the elementary education in Indian schools throughout the United States.

Miss Brandt is now familiarizing herself with the educational situation and Indian environment in Oklahoma, New Mexico, Arizona and will soon come to California. Eventually every Indian school will be visited. She has just called upon the governor of New Mexico at Santa Fe.

Miss Brandt was formerly supervisor of education in Montana where she traveled all over the state. She has been a student at Columbia University for the past two years, taking advanced courses in teachers college and supervisory work of rural schools. In two weeks she will make a short visit with her sister, Miss M. C. Brandt, who has been a resident of Sierra Madre for the past twenty years.

Three families from Los Angeles motored to Sierra Madre last Sunday and had fried chicken at the Sierra Madre Cafe. They remarked favorably about our attractive little city, beautiful scenery, and borrowed a gallon jug to transport some Sierra Madre city water to their respective homes in Los Angeles.

CAUGHT 'PLENTY' FISH

W. P. Caley caught four large halibut, ranging from three to six pounds each, from the Newport harbor barge a week ago, off Huntington Beach. He also caught seven mackerel of two pounds each, and could have filled a sack with them, but not caring for mackerel, quit the sport. Live bait is used from this barge—anchovies and sardines. Friends of Mr. Caley are fortunate in being supplied with fish every time he goes fishing. His "fish stories" always materialize.

MOTHERS' CLUB MEETS TODAY

The Mothers' Club of the Congregational Church will hold the last meeting of the year today, at 3 o'clock, in the church parlors. Following a short business meeting, when officers for the coming year will be elected, Mrs. Edith Hawxhurst will talk on child corrective work. All mothers interested in child training are invited to attend. Mrs. Gilbert Keyes and Mrs. D. Vanderpool are in charge of refreshments.

Ralph Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Davis of the Central Market, will be married Thursday, June 20, to Miss Ina Young. The ceremony will take place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young of Pasadena.

The Sierra Madre Billiard Parlor will conduct a snooker tournament on Friday evening, June 21, in which sixteen of the city's best snooker players will participate. Several prizes will be awarded to the winner and runner-up.

6 Reasons why citrus growers get higher returns by marketing through the Exchange

1 Continuous Supply. Because it represents every citrus producing area in the state, the California Fruit Growers Exchange is able to keep the trade continuously supplied throughout the year. The Exchange is headquarters for citrus fruits, handling 75 per cent of California's crop.

2 Better Information. For marketing purposes the Exchange has divided the country into 61 districts. From each of these territories Exchange representatives send daily, by telegraph and mail, reliable data on sales conditions. Thus the Exchange is in the best position to take instant advantage of every market change for the benefit of its members.

3 Salaried Salesmen. In these marketing centers the Exchange maintains its own sales offices, manned by its own experienced salesmen for the sole purpose of representing its shippers.

4 Sunkist Advertising. For 22 years the Sunkist brand has been continuously advertised. No other marketing agency offers citrus growers the accumulated advantages of national advertising or the use and good-will of so valuable a trademark.

5 Complete Service. In addition to its marketing service the Exchange operates a supply company, by-products plant research laboratory, pest-control bureau, traffic and claim department, dealer service department and other similar facilities in order to conserve and increase the grower's returns.

6 Lower Cost. The enormous volume of fruit handled by the Exchange makes possible this complete service at a cost that is lower than the marketing expense alone of any other agricultural product. Every cent over the actual operating cost goes to the grower.

All of these forces are operating for the benefit of Exchange members every day in the year. Learn what they might do for you by talking to the manager of your nearest District Exchange or Exchange Association. Or address Growers Service Bureau, California Fruit Growers Exchange, Box 530, Station "C," Los Angeles, California, for further information.

BRICE ACADEMY HOLDS CLOSING EXERCISES

Brice Academy was the scene of an enjoyable event on Thursday evening of last week when friends of the school gathered in the assembly room to witness the closing exercises of the term. A playlet by Schmitt, entitled "Six Cups of Chocolate," was rendered in a pleasing manner by six budding young actresses, as follows: Gwendolyn Gaze, Ruth Hoppe, Leota Manning, Eleanor Phillips, Marion Phillips and Flora Yaw. All showed the capable directing hand of their instructors.

Little Miss Yaw then charmingly recited a poem, "Daisies," and later sang sweetly some original verses in praise of Camp Wa-a-Wa, this being the name of the summer camp to be conducted here in the vacation period.

Mrs. Brice, in rhythmic lines, set forth the ideals and aims of the camp and one would need to be quite impervious and unresponsive if he did not entertain a wish to be eligible for the advantages presented.

After the more formal portion of the program, the guests had the opportunity of listening to several songs by two popular vocalists who never fail to afford genuine pleasure, Madame Ellen Beach Yaw, California's "Lark Ellen," and our own tenor, Mr. Leslie Gaze. Don Parker, always a favorite at the keyboard, added his share of the entertainment.

Light refreshments were served as those present mingled in pleasant social fellowship. The presence of former students of the institution gave the occasion the touch of a reunion, and altogether the evening was a delightful one, adding another proof of the gracious hospitality for which this academic home has gained a reputation.

The summer camp for girls will be carried on from July 1 to August 9. Numerous attractions, such as swimming, hiking, tennis, horse-back riding, arts and crafts, folk dancing and a trip to Catalina, are features that appeal strongly to the juvenile nature, should draw many to this beautiful spot overlooking the valley. Camp counselors will be in attendance.

Announcement was made that the privileges of Brice Academy will hereafter be available for girls only.

W. E. Craig returned to his business duties Monday after being confined to his home with a heart attack.

Mrs. Emily J. Swink will move Saturday to 30 Windsor Lane, from her present home at 75 Esperanza. Her mother will also be with her at the new address.

The Neighborhood Club met on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. Mary A. Kiggins at 51 Esperanza. Fourteen guests were present. On Sunday night the Club met at the home of Emily Swink, 75 Esperanza.

ENJOYABLE BRIDGE LUNCHEON

Mrs. Marcott and Mrs. Went entertained four tables at a 1:00 o'clock bridge luncheon Tuesday, on Mariposa street. Before playing bridge the ladies reviewed the art of Leonard Boardman, in his studio. His picture of the Grand Canyon of the Colorado, valued at $50,000 came in for its share of admiration. Portraits and other landscapes were enjoyed by the ladies. Prizes at bridge were won by Mrs. Richards, first; Mrs. Solury, second; Mrs. Went, Sr., third; Mrs. Fitzsimmons, low.

Mrs. Chas. Collins is convalescing in a Pasadena hospital after a recent operation.

HITTING THE HAND-BILL NUISANCE

THE newly formed Retail Merchants Association, a branch of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce, is to be commended upon its formal protest made at the meeting Monday evening against the promiscuous and profuse distribution of handbills and other advertising matter on the streets of the city.

This is in line with action being taken in a number of other wide-awake cities of Southern California and it is to be hoped that the city council will heed the suggestion by passing an ordinance prohibiting such acts unless the distributors obtain a permit for which they shall pay a license.

Furthermore, the ordinance suggested would require that this advertising matter, if distributed by permit, should be placed in a receptacle other than the mail box, or in such a manner that it would not blow about the streets or premises, and if the resident so desired he could post a sign indicating that he did not desire such matter to come to his place.

Shopping News, and handbills, usually distributed as an appeal for patronage by out-of-town merchants, not only litter lawns and streets, increase fire hazards, and apprise prowlers of the absence of residents from their homes when they accumulate over a period of time, but they constitute an unfair competition with the local merchants who pay license, taxes and otherwise contribute to the upbuilding of the home city.

TAKE INVENTORY

JUST be boss for a few minutes, advises an exchange. Then check up your record for the past month as employee. Remember, now, it's your money meeting the poy roll!

If you applied to yourself for a job would you get it? Have you produced enough in the month to make you a profitable investment? Have you asked questions and improved or have you been too wise to learn?

Have you, as an employee, filled your hours with productive, conscientious labor—or have you been too busy watching a clock? Have you put your shoulder to the wheel—forgotten petty differences and difficulties—or have you put sand in the gear-box?

Have you analyzed what you are doing, and why, or used instinct instead of reason, and got an indifferent and methodless result? Have you allowed your mind to become poisoned with anger, worry, or envy, and by so doing contaminated and reduced the efficiency of others?

Have you been, heart and soul, in the work—on the job every minute with a breadth of vision that made of the desert of work an oasis of opportunity?

Have you gone thru the month, a vision of pay-day the oasis in your desert of work? And have you let this vision shut out from view all else in the work that would build you to a size where you would give yourself a job?

Check up! Be truthful! Would you give yourself a job!

"WE WILL HAVE SOMETHING BETTER"

"SATURDAY," August 15th. Today the first newspaper ever published in California made its appearance. The honor, if such it be, of writing its Prospectus, fell to me. It is to be issued every Saturday, and is published by Semple and Colton.

Thus did the Rev. Walter Colton record the historic event which took place in Monterey in 1846. Many were the difficulties of printer and publisher in those early days. Not the least was "the main scratch for paper. None could be found, except what is used to envelope the tobacco of the seagor smoked here by the natives. A coaster had a small supply of this on board, which we procured. It is in sheets a little larger than the common-sized foolscap. And this is the size of our first paper, which we have christened "The Californian."

Further commenting on the situation in his paper, and using two v's for w's, since his old Spanish font contained none, he says: "Our paper at present is that used for vvraying segars; in due time we vwill have something better."

Already sound and color have been added to the movies, and smell is said to be next. How about a little more taste?—Christian Science Monitor.

LEAVES FOR BORNEO

Amidst the playing of "I Love You, California," by the ship's band, the throwing of serpentine and confetti by twenty-five friends who gathered to see them depart, Mrs. L. L. Wammack and daughter Dorothy left Monday at 11 a. m. on the S. S. President Johnson, a Dollar Line boat, for Miri, Sarawak, Borneo, where Mr. Wammack has been for the past year employed as oil man for the Shell Co. The trip will take 45 days. Mrs. Wammack will meet them at Singapore to accompany them to their new home, of which he writes interestingly as follows: "There are lots of wild flowers in Borneo, with very little perfume in them. The hibiscus and many other flowers which we cultivate, grow in wild profusion. The vegetables cultivated by the Americans are sweet potatoes, onions, carrots, cucumbers, two or three greens, green beans. The fruits are native bananas, pineapple, limes, lemons, tangerines. Apples and oranges are imported."

The Wammacks will have a Chinese cook, American trained, in their home, which consists of living room with wing extensions, dining room, kitchen separate from the house, two bedrooms, two bathrooms, lawns, flowers. There are four native fruit trees with fruit the size and flavor of the cantaloupe and which bear all year, and pineapples. There is a chicken house and barn.

The beds are 8x8 feet, and one almost needs a step ladder to get into them. They are covered with mosquito netting.

Mr. Wammack says a cat and flower show will be held soon. The native cats are very pretty and have bobbed tails.

Lawn tennis, golf and many teas and social affairs occupy the time of the ladies.

The first oil well drilled by Mr. Wammack is now making over 100 tons per day, eight barrels to a ton. Wide open it would yield 150 tons per day.

The roads are good for motor-ing for only a few miles in each direction. A boat has to be taken to go to the next town, several hundred miles away.

The Wammacks will live on the north side of Borneo, near the Baram river, which is over a mile wide. Families live on both sides of the Miri River. "Miri" in Malay means "red."

Wild birds are not many, but the wild doves which they do have are brilliantly plumaged. There are three kinds of deer, small, medium and large. Monkeys are plentiful. Mr. Wammack stated he looked down the street recently and saw about 100 monkeys crossing the road. One big "daddy" monkey sat in the middle of the road and acted as attentive as a school traffic cop to see that all crossed in safety. Another "daddy" monkey brought up the rear.

Mrs. Wammack and Dorothy were the recipients of many lovely going-away gifts of flowers, candy and useful gifts for their travels. The Sierra Madre friends bidding them adieu were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Pratt, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Brooks and Jean, Mr. and Mrs. James Scoville, Mrs. Coates and Miriam, Mrs. Colbert, Mrs. Mary Dickinson and Nancy. The Wammacks expect to remain in Borneo from four to five years.

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH BIRTHDAY PARTY IS A GREAT SUCCESS

Ingenuous decorations and exceedingly clever stunts characterized the first anniversary of the Congregational Church, which was appropriately celebrated by a birthday dinner given in the social hall of the Woman's Club of the Church Friday evening, June 7, at 6:30 o'clock.

Great credit is given the committee in charge with Mrs. J. M. Campbell, chairman. Mrs. Campbell worked for weeks with untiring effort to make the affair a success it proved to be. She was assisted by Mrs. E. E. Bacon, Mrs. Amy Leggett, Mrs. Percy Kortkamp, Mrs. Udell, Mrs. L. Rice. Approximately 200 men, women and children were seated at the twelve tables representing the respective months of their birth. Each table was decorated in keeping with the spirit of the month, and presided over by two hostesses who saw that their guests lacked nothing in the way of food or attention.

Following the dinner each table group furnished an appropriate number on the program. Each table had two birthday cakes with candles appropriate to the decoration.

The January table was centered with a large sparkling cotton snowball, greens and white candles with nut cups and place cards of white. The hostesses were Marguerite Laione and Kathryn McBurney. Little Betty Jo Adams greeted the guests with a "Happy New Year to all."

February had a gorgeous lighted heart with many small red lights over the table, interlaced with asparagus fern, and presided over by Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger and Mrs. N. W. Tarr. Nut cups were of red. Their stunt was a large valentine on the stage, made of many small hearts and the guests were to guess the number. Muriel Tarr turned her head thru the center when the prize was awarded.

March took St. Patrick as its motif, the table centered with a bouquet of white snapdragons and carnations with greens. Green candles with large green bows, small potatoes with the Daughter of Erin inserted as place cards, and green bow favors completed the decorations. The hostesses were Mrs. R. S. Corlette and Miss Leah Fletcher. Miss Fletcher is a cousin of Booth Tarkington. Miss Green gave a reading, "The Birth of St. Patrick."

April was cleverly portrayed by a thunder cloud of cotton about 18 inches above the table with spring flowers of columbine and pansies in garden effect underneath. Japanese girls holding umbrellas in pastel colors were place cards. The guests were provided with umbrellas for April showers by the hostesses, Mrs. E. E. Bacon and Mrs. Ralph Lord. Their stunt was a cleverly arranged April thunder shower, done by lighting effects, a piano accompaniment and real water coming from the "cloud" on the table.

The May table was centered by a Maypole with pastel ribbons held by clothes pin dolls in pink. Wistaria napkins, white cake with pink trimmings and place cards of pansies and birds completed it. Mrs. Nestor Young and Miss Virginia Jones were hostesses. Tennyson's "Queen of the May" read by Mrs. Young and acted by Mrs. Myrtle Hill in hooped skirt as the mother and Dr. Laidlaw as the queen daughter brought applause and laughter from the audience.

A bride and groom on a white cake, large pink candles tied with tulle and lily of the valley, birds, pink sweet peas and white fennel in green crystal vases, wedding bell place cards, a water hyacinth completed the June table. Hostesses were Mrs. Homer Glidden and Mrs. M. R. McBurney. When the stage curtain parted for their part of the program it disclosed four colored people impersonating the Old South, with bales of cotton and cotton plants as scenery. They sang "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" and "Carolina Moon." A mirth-provoking colored wedding followed with "Sapolio Rosebud" attired in white with mosquito netting veil and shower bouquet of radishes and onions as the bride, and Rufus Rastus Johnston Brown attired in conventional black coat and striped trousers, a silk hat and large bow necktie. Mrs. Bess Palmer Rhoades as the preacher in a gay fezz, and shoes that were not mates, read a ludicrous wedding service. Frances Glidden was the bride and Lawrence Perry the groom. Bridesmaid, Jane Holland. Dorothy and Elsie Lichnog, Mary Davis and Audrey Danz the chorus.

July had a flower centerpiece of red sweet peas and geraniums, white Matilaja poppy and blue delphinium; the flower container covered with red, white and blue crepe paper. There were two flag groupings, tall candles entwined in patriotic colors, flag favors and red and white candies. Lester Bodine, whose birthday is on July 4th, lead the flag salute which was responded to by the entire audience. "The Battle Cry of Freedom" also was sung.

Colonel Hersey, the "weather prophet" gave a concise talk on "Friendliness and Kindness, the true religion, as expressed in such social gatherings as the birthday party of the Church." The hostesses were Mrs. L. Rice and Mrs. J. M. Campbell.

August was decorated to portray out-of-door sports. A pond was the center with tiny candles with dolls and Indians. The pond was outlined with lavender and yellow everlasting flowers. The hostesses were Mrs. H. B. Hersey and Miss Josephine Croft. Little Margaret Adwell appeared in a bathing suit and umbrella, and carrying a beach ball. Mrs. Eakman recited two original poems, "My Dolly's Frock" and "Let There Be Peace."

School Days was the motif for the September table. Books, pencils, globes, numbers, chalk, mouth harps, lunch kits, thermos bottles, tablets, with a lunch plate as a favor characterized the decoration. Mrs. A. O. Pritchard and Mrs. Hortense Hill were hostesses. The song "School Days" was sung.

The Halloween motif decorated the October table, with black cats, witches, pumpkins, place cards, black and gold pansy corsages, orange candles. Mrs. A. A. Halsey and Mrs. Amy Leggett were hostesses. Their "stunt" consisted in Mrs. Taylor, garbed as a witch with Mrs. Barbour as the fortune teller, reading clever "futures" for a few of the guests over a lighted caldron.

The November hostesses were Mrs. Donald Ashmore and Mrs. P. C. Kortkamp. The centerpiece and decorations were typically Thanksgiving with a fruit center on a mirror, autumn leaves of crepe paper, small turkeys, orange candles in orange candle-sticks. Roberta Roberts gave "The Fledgling Dance" and told the story of "The Three Little Pigs."

The December table was festive with a yule log center, greens, Christmas trees, and Santa Claus. Mrs. Greer Caskey and Miss Muriel Tarr were hostesses. Seven carollers from the Plaza Community Children's Home sweetly sang "Silent Night" and "Little Town of Bethlehem." They carried lighted Yuletide lanterns and wore wraps and mufflers.

Sterrett Meyers, nephew of Mrs. E. E. Bacon, handled the lighting effects artistically, originating the thunder shower.

Mrs. J. D. Wallace, mother of Mrs. William Middough, is a house guest at the Middough residence.

C. H. Andrews, a former resident of Sierra Madre, is critically ill in the Santa Fe hospital, Los Angeles. He is a brother of W. S. Andrews.

Mr. Sellers of the Sierra Madre Cafe offered to serve dinner to the family in needy circumstances as mentioned in last week's News. The family was deeply grateful.

MORGRIDGES GUESTS OF HONOR

Several affairs have been given in honor of the Morgridge family who will leave Saturday for an extended motor trip to the east coast. Monday, Mrs. Ashmore and Mrs. Rice gave a tea to honor Mrs. Morgridge and Mrs. Hill, her mother. Spring flowers were used in the rooms. Twenty-two ladies were present.

Monday night the Sunday school teachers, together with the members of the Men's Class at the church, gave a joint shower for Mr. and Mrs. Morgridge and Mrs. Hill. Gifts suitable for auto traveling were given the honored guests in the social hall of the church. Clever games were played and refreshments served. The travelers were wished bon voyage by thirty-five guests present. Mr. and Mrs. Morgridge have both given unselfishly of their services to church work and their associates are taking every means possible to show their appreciation.

You use less water in cooking...
It's more dependable than any maid—always on the job. I put dinner in the oven and do my garden work, too. The range cooks in oven dinners—bake own bread and cakes.
What I like best is the oven control as I can put my dinner in the oven, set my vent and clock, then worry no more about it until time to eat.
Never had trouble nor has it been out of order. I think I give a range a fair test as have baked biscuit each morning since I had it. Also bake my own bread, pies, and cakes. (Range 4½ years old.)
I am glad that
Kitchen work is easier because the fuel is always there. I believe the range is as recommended by the salesman.

Health School Opens Here July First

Local School to Be Limited to Thirty Pupils This Year

Dr. J. M. Furstman, district health officer for Sierra Madre, reports that enthusiastic interest is being shown in the summer health school to open here July 1st in the grammar school at Highland and Hermosa avenues, for eight weeks of health sessions, under the joint auspices of the Los Angeles county health department and the Los Angeles county public health association, tuberculosis committee. Dr. Furstman expresses himself as very gratified with the hearty cooperation that is being given the project by the local school board and everyone in the community.

Examinations for the Sierra Madre school have been completed by Dr. Adele Brown, child hygiene physician, and recommendations filed for such children as have been found to be in need of rehabilitation and intensive health training. Preference is to be given children who have had physical defects pointed out by the child hygiene physician corrected, and to new pupils, states Dr. Furstman.

The local school will be limited to 30 children under the age of 11 years. No actually ill child or anyone found to have active tuberculosis will be admitted to the summer health school.

A daily program of health classes, rest periods, mid-morning and afternoon lunches, supervised sun-baths and recreation has been outlined by the summer health school staff nutritionist, Miss Rama V. Bennett; the staff health educator, Mrs. Alice M. Deist, and the staff physiotherapist, Mrs. Annabelle Roether. Dr. Anna E. Rude is this year the director of summer health schools.

The Sierra Madre Parent-Teacher Association is assisting in financing the summer health school. The local Kiwanis club has also contributed $50 to this fund. The county health association provides from Christmas Seal funds part of the salaries of the supervising staffs and subsidies to new schools or to those having financial difficulties that cannot be met by the community. The county health department provides the local staff. In several districts local boards are cooperating by providing a full-time teacher or apportioning definite sums toward their salaries.

RETURNS HOME FROM EUROPE

Mrs. Laura H. Stevenson, mother of Mrs. Randolph Wood and sister of J. N. Hawks, arrived Monday from Florence, Italy, where she is the head of an exclusive American and English boarding school for girls. She expects to be here until some time in August. Janet Allen accompanied her as far as England, where she is visiting relatives.

Local Young People on Program

Spring Recital Program at Junior Hi Brings Out
Fine Talent

The spring recital at Woodrow Wilson was held June 5th, under direction of Miss Mildred Robinson. The program was as follows:

"Pena Hueco" (Mexican folk song), Marjorie Ashmore and Genevieve Paschall; "In a Chinese Garden," (Nash), Kimi Tomoyasu; "Sin Dance," (Nash), Eileen Laster; "Rain Prayer," (Nash), Lilah Croxson and Frances Hora; "Lilacs," (Nash), duet, Genevieve Paschall and Mary Van Duzer; "Valse Espagnole," (Paldi), Kathryn Alley; "Dance Caprice," (Grieg), Norma List; "Harlequin and Columbine," (Nash), Genevieve Paschall and Elva Reins; "Dance of the East," (Orth), Doris Stickle; "Hungarian Dance," (Rheinhold), Herbert Quick; "Tarantella," (De la Valle De Pay), Martha Newton; "Ventian Love Song," (Nevin), duet, Mary Groth and Doris Stickle; "Cossack Dance," (Nash), Marjorie Ashmore; "Warum," (Schumann), John Trever; "Toccata," Whitfield, Jean Brown.

The Guidance Council of the Woodrow Wilson school, under the direction of Miss Mildred Scott, has, during the past semester, fostered a number of speeches on vacations and professions for the student body. Thursday of last week, the following program was presented:

Mr. Z. McDaniel, president for California of the National Aeronautical Society, was introduced by Mr. Charlson, an instructor at Wilson. Mr. McDaniel gave a brief history of aviation and then spoke of the great future it has. He outlined the three distinct fields into which one may enter: Flying, the longest and least important of the three; manufacturing, and economics. Mr. McDaniel inaugurated the Western Air Express and is captain of the Air Pilots.

Mr. Henry C. Foes gave an interesting lecture on interior-decoration. A keen sense of color and design is needed for an interior decorator, according to Mr. Foes, and the demand for interior decorators is comparatively large. Three or four years of study in color and design are necessary. After his lecture Mr. Foes answered a great many questions concerning his topic.

Mr. J. McCarthy Rounds of the County Farm Advisors Bureau, gave a talk on agriculture. Mr. Rounds was accompanied by Mr. Shackelford, director of agriculture in Pasadena public schools.

Mrs. R. C. Copenhagen has 30 baby canaries and twelve older ones at her home on Mariposa. Included in the assortment are both warblers and rollers.

Dr. Groth is using the residence at 94 North Baldwin as a temporary maternity home, hoping in the near future to reopen a hospital.

Mrs. Taylor's room has made a very lovely miniature farm, situated by a mountain, with a farmhouse, dairy, stables, and a house for the hired hands.

Fire Flames

By One of the Boys

At our special meeting last Friday arrangements were made, committees were appointed, and general plans to hold a card party and dance at the Woman's Club House Thursday, June 20. This is to endeavor to raise funds to equip the recently-acquired "First Aid Truck", "Emergency Truck," or whatever we decide to call it. The boys are in some doubt as to an appropriate name for this vehicle and would welcome suggestions from their friends. Some of the men who are working on the thing, probably have a great many names for it, especially when a wrench slips. Frank Lovell seems to be the chief engineer of work in remodeling the car, and if you know Frank, well-nuf ced.

Lee Hibbs is superintending the making of a First Aid cabinet that is to be placed on the wagon and it is surprising the amount of work required to build such a box. It consists of drawers and doors and plenty of "em and of various sizes. The entire First Aid crew is assisting Mr. Hibbs in this, and it is now nearly completed. It can be seen at the engine house.

There are a great many things necessary to equip the truck properly, therefore the party to raise a little money. It has been a long time since the firemen have annoyed the public by selling tickets, but we expect to do so for this particular affair. This truck is not only an asset to the fire department, but acts also as an emergency truck and the boys expect to have it equipped and running without the aid of city funds. The poor city is still broke.

Chief Richards and Vern Udell were in Los Angeles on Tuesday and brought home a "body." This also was put aside for the truck. The body, by the way, was a steel auto body.

This is regular practice night, don't forget the time. There will be the regular routine of business, also. Geo. Cox must have been somewhat jealous of the fire department's car. He went out and got himself a lovely old Cadillac of former times. He says it still runs. So does McMillan's "Lizzie." Prepare yourself for a big time at Pasadena June 24. The S.G.V.F.A. and their ladies are to be the guests of Chief Cox and the Pasadena Fire Dept. Meeting, dancing and fine eats. All Scotch. FIRE'S OUT!

Atwater Kent Distributor Brings Home Big Contract

In company with his official family Ray Thomas, Atwater Kent distributor, has just returned to Los Angeles after participating in dedicatory services of the new Atwater Kent plant in Philadelphia, the largest factory in the world.

The Sierra Madre Hardware Co. local dealers, state that Thomas brought home with him the largest single contract for radios in the history of the Pacific Coast. The new screen-grid sensation, which has created a furore in the radio industry, is to be emphasized during the coming year. With the increased capacity of the new plant, said to be 12,000 receivers daily, Thomas is confident that the factory will be able to meet all demands promptly.

Announcement is made that the baby clinics will continue thru the summer months, the next one to be held Thursday, June 20, at the Park club house. Dr. Brown, baby specialist, will be in charge.

Santa Anita Gardens Open For Business

High Class Amusement Resort Attracts Crowds at Opening

Swimming, Dancing, Riding and Luncheon Parties Are Offered

The Santa Anita Gardens, formerly the Santa Anita Riding Club, on the corner of Santa Anita Avenue and Huntington Drive, Arcadia, has recently opened under new management with facilities for a variety and type of entertainment and recreation that promise to make this one of the leading resorts in the entire foothill vicinity. It is only a matter of two miles from Sierra Madre.

More than 120 persons refreshed themselves in the large swimming pool Sunday. This tank is 50 by 150 feet and is supplied by a constantly running stream of pure water which is chemically treated as it enters the pool. The tank is completely emptied and scrubbed once a week. Two state life guards are in constant attendance. The pool is 11 feet deep at one end and only 2 feet at the shallow end. Diving boards and other devices offer bathers abundant amusement.

A first class cafe supplies patrons with excellent home-cooked meals. A merchant's lunch is served every day from 12 to 2 o'clock at a charge of only 50c. On Sundays a "blue plate dinner" is served from 1 to 7:30 p. m. at a cost of $1. A handsome $400 radio furnishes music for the patrons of the attractive English dining room. Dancing may be arranged for special parties.

Horseback riding is another feature of the entertainment offered. The stables contain twenty beautiful horses, well gaited and with plenty of "pep."

The spacious grounds offer excellent opportunities for lawn luncheon parties under the trees. Mr. Howard, manager, states that they cater particularly to bridge luncheon parties which are constantly increasing in numbers as word of this favored spot spreads. The Foothill Breakfast Club meets there every Thursday morning with an average attendance of more than 100. They meet under two giant oaks more than 600 years old.

Further details of the Santa Anita Gardens may be learned by tuning in on station KMTR, Hollywood, every morning from 7 to 10 o'clock.

NO INCREASE IN P. E. FARES FOR SIERRA MADRE

There is to be no increase in the fares on the Pacific Electric Railway between Sierra Madre and Los Angeles according to George E. Mesecar, local agent. The round trip fare between L. A. and a number of the close-in cities was raised 5 cents, the new fare to go into effect in July.

The one-way fare east of Lima Street will continue to be 35c and the round trip rate 60 cents as heretofore, so far as any instructions have been issued to the local agent are concerned.

Rin Tin Tin At Monrovia Lyric Theatre

Special Added Attraction at Monrovia Theatre for Saturday Matinee

Rin Tin Tin starring in "The Million Dollar Collar," is the big attraction at the Monrovia Lyric Theatre for Friday and Saturday, June 21 and 22. Rin Tin Tin is a German shepherd dog found by Lieut. Lee Duncan in France. The dog was three days old when found in the war zone. Duncan trained him for the movies and the story of his sensational rise to fame is well known.

On Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, June 18, 19, 20, "The Valiant," Fox Movietone production, will hold the boards. Paul Muni and Marguerite Churchill appear in the leading roles, and their fine work elicited many fine criticisms from the metropolitan press.

"Hot Stuff" a Vitaphone talking picture comes Sunday and Monday, June 16 and 17. Alice White, the star, was, two years ago, a secretary. Now she is among the stars of filmland. In "Hot Stuff" she appears in her first talking role.

As an extra added attraction Saturday matinee, Buster Keaton appears in the fun-riot, "Spite Marriage." This attraction is in addition to the regular bill, which gives to the patrons of the popular Monrovia film house, a double bill for their enjoyment.

Communications

Anaheim, Calif., June 10, 1929. Sierra Madre News: Gentlemen: I wish to call your attention to an article that appeared in your paper of Friday, June 7, 1929.

In regard to the accident between Mr. T. R. Kimbrough and J. J. Denni, it did not occur on Foothill Blvd., but on Santa Anita Drive and Woodland Avenue.

I was coming up Santa Anita Drive and had the right of way when Mr. Kimbrough made a turn directly east on Woodland Avenue and hit my car on the left hand side, damaging my car to a great extent.

In justice to both parties I wish you would please correct this statement, instead of putting the blame on my part, when he was entirely to blame.

(Signed) Job J. Denni.
